DE LEON CEMETERY

The main cemetery at De Leon is on West Reynosa Street near the edge of town. A decorative native stone wall across the older part of the Reynosa Street side was erected by the De Leon Garden Club in 1951. The entire site includes 17.55 acres.

The earliest marked grave is that of Cyrus Campbell who died 12 September 1883. A short sketch about him begins on page 11 of this volume. The last date on which inscriptions were copied or revised was 31 December 1976.

In general, alphabetical order within each section of the cemetery has been used. Since many of the lots are curbed, there is little explanation of the relationship of the individuals buried in each enclosure. The modern stones often include minimum information. We have copied the names of individuals seeming to be husband and wife and listed them together. There are probably some errors among these since many inscriptions are names and dates only. Even more probably, we have separated some names which belong together.

For the purposes of copying on this site, the term "only date" has been adopted. The cemetery is well sodded, mowed, filled in, and kept as flat as possible. The presence of unmarked old graves is almost impossible to ascertain. Of course, many dates suggest that the individual is still living. The number of funeral home type markers is small and most of these seem to disappear in very short order.

Through the kindness of Mayor Scottie Campbell, we were able to make a copy of the cemetery plat to keep with our material. We had hoped to publish the lot numbers but this proved far too complicated without actually surveying the land. We did record the numbers as well as we could in our own files. Should you plan to visit the cemetery, we can perhaps provide a general idea of a grave's location. Be sure to include a self addressed stamped envelope if you send a request.

A LITTLE ABOUT CYRUS CAMPBELL

Our cover photograph shows the earliest marked grave in the main cemetery at De Leon. Cyrus Campbell, who has become increasingly fascinating, is buried beside his second wife, Minerva.

As his parents had been, Cyrus Campbell was born in North Carolina on the 11th of October 1810. He applied for land as one of Austin's colonists and came to Texas by way of Arkansas. He received a grant of one league (4428.4 acres) in modern Grimes County.

In 1835, Cyrus married Rebecca Robbins in what would soon become Austin County. Rebecca's parents, William and Mary Robbins, had come to Texas with Austin's Old Three Hundred. William Robbins received title on July 19, 1824, to 1 sito (4428.4 acres) in present day Brazoria County and 1 labor (177.12 acres) in Austin County where the family evidently settled. During 1835 and 1836, Cyrus lived at Columbia in Brazoria County.

A blacksmith by trade, Cyrus was evidently a busy one. Among the Audited Claims Papers in the Texas State Archives is a voucher for $5. he was due for work on a gun carriage done October 14, 1835. Another voucher dated November 25, 1835 authorized $20. the Provisional Government of Texas owed him for repairing the arms of the Mobile Grays. This unit of about 30 volunteers was organized in Alabama by James Butler Bonham, A. C. Horton, and S. P. St. John to come to the fight for Texas independence. After several encounters, all these men are presumed to have been among those lost in the Goliad Massacre on March 27, 1836.

In 1870 the Legislature approved an act providing pensions for veterans of the War for Texas Independence. Cyrus' application does not seem to have received final approval but it is a most interesting document.

He says that about the 16th of March, 1836, he received the general order of General Sam Houston for troops to rendezvous at Gonzales. Campbell says he went at once since he was registered in a company at Columbia commanded by Captain Wm. Patton. The men arrived in squads and Campbell notes he served with a company commanded by Captain Gibson Kuykendall.

During the retreat from Gonzales, measles broke out in camp and Cyrus became ill. By the time he recovered, the Battle of San Jacinto had ended the war and he never returned to the army or received his formal discharge. Cyrus' statement is sworn to by Rufus E. Campbell and John Campbell as witnesses. These men are listed among the soldiers ordered by Houston to remain at Harrisburg as a rear guard while the rest of the Texas army went on to San Jacinto. Rufus E. and John subsequently received land grants in recognition of their military service.

Also among the Audited Claims Papers are other bits of evidence of Cyrus' activities during the early days in Texas. Most well known locally is the fact that Campbell made a set of leg irons used on the imprisoned General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna who had led the Mexican army. W. H. Patton, Chief of the Prison Guard at Columbia, received these on July 23, 1836. On his voucher for the $5. charge, Patton comments that "the price is about right if not very moderate".

By joint resolution on October 6, 1841, the Republic of Texas Legislature approved payment, in promissory notes, of Campbell's claim for $64.12 for his work on the schooner of war Liberty. This vessel was one of the four original ships purchased for the Texas Navy.

After the war, Cyrus settled in Austin County where he farmed for many years. He is listed in the 1840 tax roll as having completed the patent on 100 acres of land. He was also guardian for his youthful brother-in-law, John Reid Robbins, who had 911 acres. Rebecca's mother held 2422 acres as administratrix of the estate of William Robbins who had died in October of 1836.

Rebecca died and only two of her children were living in 1911. Cyrus M. was in Temple by then and William T. lived at Childress. On October 3, 1846, Cyrus married Minverva T. Clemmons in Washington County.

In 1870, the census taker lists Cyrus and Minerva living in Austin County. Cyrus says they lived "near Travis". At home were their children: James I. who was 19, Lewis W., 16, and Alice who was 10. Also their daughter Ann F. was living at home with her husband James E. Stevens and their three month old son. By 1880, the situation had changed slightly. The only child remaining at home was Alice who was there with her new husband, James M. Presler. The James E. Stevens family was living nearby and included three children by 1880.

Soon afterward, there seems to have been considerable change in the family's activities. Cyrus M. who had lived in Austin and Washington Counties, sold his interest in a successful store at Brenham and moved to Belton where he put in a lumber yard about 1883. He subsequently moved to Temple as his lumber yard chain grew.

James I. Campbell, then of McLennan County, bought property in De Leon on September 10, 1882. James E. Stevens, also of McLennan County, bought a city block in De Leon on January 31, 1883. In March he sold half of this to Cyrus Campbell and this deed is acknowledged at Comanche on May 30, 1883.

Evidently Cyrus did not live long in De Leon but he is remembered fondly as a minister in the Methodist Church there. A stained glass memorial window for him was placed in the church building constructed by the Methodists in 1895. Cyrus died in De Leon September 12, 1883. On September 30th, less than three weeks later, Minerva died there also.

The Campbells' daughter Alice and her husband James M. Presler, lived in De Leon for a time during the mid-1880's. They later moved to Comanche where Presler was a law partner of S.J. Thomas and later of T.L. Hutchison. Presler was educated at Soule University at Chappel Hill and at Texas A. & M., and he studied law after his marriage to Alice. His career as a jurist was a long and distinguished one and he represented the district including Comanche County as state senator for three terms in the Legislature. He left Comanche to become Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals in the Second District and in the Seventh District which was created later.

De Leon Founded In 1881

The town of De Leon was founded in 1881 with the coming of the Texas Central Railway into the county. In the issue of The Chief, June 16, 1881 there appears an article stating that the Central was going to establish a depot at Coonerville in the north end of the county. That summer the steel was laid through the town and the name of De Leon was adopted.

On July 7, 1881, the first town lots were sold in De Leon. There was at the time not even the slightest suggestion of a town and there were only two or three farm houses in that section. E. N. Waldrop a few weeks later erected the first store and he and his family lived in the rear of the building.

A few months after the founding of the town, R. T. Higginbotham opened a store in De Leon and that was really the beginning of the Higginbotham business in the county.

In the latter part of 1881 John Gorman came from Blanket to De Leon and opened a store and in 1882 formed a partnership with W. C. Streety, the firm later becoming Gorman, Streety-Anderson & Co.

The De Leon Free Press was founded in 1890 by John J. Switzer, son of the late W. C. Switzer of Comanche.

De Leon now has a population of about 2000 and is the center of a fruit, watermelon and peanut farming section and is known throughout the State as a fruit marketing center.

The coming of the Texas Central to De Leon gave that town a railroad about ten years in advance of the coming of the Fort Worth and Rio Grande to Comanche.

Soon after the coming of the railroad, the first store in De Leon was opened by E. N. Waldrop.

The coming of the Texas Central to De Leon gave that town a railroad about ten years in advance of the coming of the Fort Worth and Rio Grande to Comanche.

Soon after the coming of the railroad, the first store in De Leon was opened by E. N. Waldrop.

Next year in 1883, Waldrop also opened a hotel and saloon in De Leon with Bill Carnes of Comanche as bartender.

B. H. Higginbotham opened a store in De Leon about 1882 which marked the beginning of that great business firm in Comanche County. He was later joined by Joe Higginbotham.

Between 1870 and 1880 a stage line operated between Dallas and Comanche via De Leon bringing mail once each way per week.

The first school in the De Leon section was established at Ebenezer in 1872, six miles south of what is now De Leon and the first cemetery was established at the same place in the same year.

One of the first settlers in the De Leon section was the Heath family who built a log cabin on the Leon River in 1872 in what was later to be known as the Onion Valley section. The builder was the father of the late "Uncle Henry" Heath.

"Uncle Charlie" Carruth was one of the early settlers of the North part of the county. He came to Comanche in 1871, settling in what was later the Pounds community.

Mr. Carruth came to Comanche County just as the buffaloes were leaving. He killed one in the Highland community, running with his cows in 1872.

Aunt Fannie and Uncle Tom Brown settled two miles south of what is now De Leon in 1876, making their home in a log cabin which they built. Comanche was their post office. For the first two years Aunt Fannie went three miles daily to a neighbor's and brought back all the water they used in a bucket. Later by her own labor she dug a well 25 feet deep and struck a hard rock. The rock was blasted out and underneath it there was an abundance of water.

In the 70's Aunt Martha Brumley, living in north part of the county, led their only horse into kitchen and shut the door when she saw a band of Indi coming driving more than 300 horses which had been sto from her neighbors.

it that night to locate the Indian camp five miles aw

A few hours later the white men returned and they could before running away. Some of the animals w

Rev. J. M. Strickland came to Comanche County fr
Arkansas in 1875, settling in what is now the Sand community. He made the trip in a covered wagon and

Rev. Strickland was ordained to preach in 1877
the Jim Culberson residence near what is now Beat
The ordaining elders were R. D. Ross, J. R. Northc
F. M. Herring, and W. M. Barker.

BANKING HISTORY

The national banking system was established in 1863, but only a few scattered banks had obtained charters from the federal government before the 1880's.

In Texas, the Constitution of 1845 prohibited the incorporation of banks by the state, so mercantile and commission merchants provided limited banking functions. Moneylenders in the villages were the forerunners of bankers. In 1859, there were more than three thousand moneylenders in Texas.

The evolution of the commercial banking system in Texas is a reflection of the frontier distrust of all financial organizations. The state constitutions of 1861 and 1866 inserted prohibitions of state chartered banks, then in 1874 a general banking law was passed only to be prohibited again in 1876. Finally, in 1905 a state banking system was established allowing the incorporation of state banks. Prior to that time, only thirteen national banks had been organized by 1880, but by 1885 the number had grown to sixty-eight. However, many citizens continued to use the mercantile house, a postal money order, and in some cases, would send a packet of money by railroad express to handle money matters.

A list of the officers and directors of early-day banks in Comanche County proves interesting.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Comanche was chartered September 17, 1886. Its officers and board were: H. R. Martin, President; T. C. Hill, Cashier; G. A. Beeman, L. B. Russell, J. L. Moore, James Carnes, Sr., W. O. Hamilton, C. B. Mason, Jim H. Hill, E. Greer, J. A. Solomon, M. M. Rosenthal, Chas. L. Bernheim, W. W. Seely and E. Rotan.

COMANCHE NATIONAL BANK was chartered December 19, 1887 and its original building constructed in 1890, still stands in the town of Comanche and has been preserved by the present owner, Joseph Maxwell. First officers and stockholders of Comache National Bank were: J. B. Chilton, president; W. B. Cunningham, Cashier; T. J. Holmsley, J. R. Thomas, F. M. Browne R. W. Turner, J. W. Greene, J. D. Campbell, R. V. Neely, Jame Cunningham, Sr., E. Rotan, and M. B. Lloyd.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK of Comanche was chartered January 21, 1904, with W. H. Montgomery, President T. J. Williams, Vice President, E. E. Anthony, Cashier, N. E Palmer, Assistant Cashier; J. F. Tate, A. J. Gray, I. G. Wyatt M. B. Anderson, T. R. Holmsley, Directors.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK of De Leon was organized January 1, 1905 with the following officers and directors R. W. Higginbotham, President; Dr. T. P. Weaver, Vice President; C. R. Carruth, Vice President; W. S. Whaley, Cashier. R. R. Harvey, Assistant Cashier; C. W. Bartlett, J. D. Ham C. R. Strain, J. B. Wilson and W. W. Whaley, Directors.

Date of founding has not been determined but other banks were in operation at Gustine and De Leon in 1907. The Bank of Gustine advertised W. H. Eddleman, President; W. A. Waldrop, Vice President; George C. Jones, Cashier, and at De Leon the First National Bank also had as its president W. H. Eddleman, with W. C. Streety, Vice President; J. Doss Miller, Vice President; B. J. Pittman, Cashier; Dodd Price, Assistant Cashier. At Gustine, A. A. Kelly is known to have had the Farmers & Merchants Bank, and J. P. Pettit & Company operated a private bank.

THE FIRST STATE BANK of Comanche was founded December 10, 1910 by E. E. Anthony and J. E. Gray. Mr. Anthony had worked as a telegraph operator in Comanche, served as assistant postmaster, worked as a newspaper editor of the Comanche Chief, was an employee of the Comanche National Bank and the First National Bank and was an organizer of Farmers & Merchants Bank of Commerce before he organized the First State Bank.

By 1916, county banks were advertising the merits of the federal reserve system, and First National of Comance offered a free booklet entitled "How Does It Benefit Me?" explaining the federal reserve. Depositors were solicited to support the system to help business men and farmers, to provide plenty of currency at all times, and to effect a steadier supply of credit.

At present Comanche County has four banks, three of which have constructed new facilities including drive-in windows, plus every modern day banking service. First State Bank was successor to the Gustine Bank and business is being conducted in the stone building first erected in Gustine. Farmers & Merchants Bank of De Leon is still in operation but at a new location, as is Comanche National in Comanche. First Comanche Bank as successor to State National Bank has recently completed a twenty-four hour drive-in window as an addition to the bank.

In the ten years between 1960 and 1970 bank deposits in Comanche County rose 177%, which was the highest figure in the five county area of Central Texas.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
De Leon

When a town is born, a church is organized soon afterward. That seems to be the usual sequence of events.

De Leon United Methodist Church has the unique distinction of having been organized five years before there was a town of De Leon. In 1881 the Central Texas Railway Company laid a railroad through this area and established a depot at a convenient site. The Railroad Company named the depot De Leon because it was near the Leon River. Records show that very soon after the railroad was built, the town of De Leon was laid out and the first lots sold.

Five years prior to this, in 1876, a Methodist Church was organized by the Reverend E. A. Bailey, Presiding Elder of the Dublin District. This was the beginning of the De Leon Methodist Episcopal Church South. There were thirteen charter members, eight women and five men. Who can account for the unique fact that seven of the eight women were named "Mary"! The charter members were H. P. Biffle and wife Mary Biffle, William Cooner and wife Mary Cooner, David Windsor and wife Mary Windsor, Mrs. Mary Windsor, Mrs. Mary Edwards, Mrs. Mary Edmondson, Mrs. Mary Garner, Miss Ellen Biffle, John Biffle and R. S. Buchan.

These people planned to be permanent settlers. They built a church building. It was fourteen by fourteen feet square, made of logs, and covered with boards. Quoting from information left by J. D. Ham, "It was located on the North side of the branch, something near or below where Mrs. J. H. Buchan lives." Old settlers in De Leon locate this spot more specifically by placing it on McKinney Street in the approximate vicinity of 503 North McKinney.

The next building was erected in 1882 on the corner of Austin and Labadie. This same location was used for the next eighty-two years. The building erected in 1882 was a frame building and was built under the pastoral leadership of the Reverend John Womack. Two other buildings served the Methodist people at this same location. The second structure, also frame, was erected in 1895 with the Reverend E. A. Caraway as pastor. A brick building was built in 1917 under Pastor W. H. Doss.

Some of the records kept, concerning this building, make interesting reading and provide names of many of the church leaders of that time. The building committee was composed of W. C. Streety, Dr. A. M. Allen and E. E. Dabney. The finance committee -- always important -- was a larger committee. On this committee were J. B. Wilson, Chairman, Dr. A. M. Allen, F. E. Carter, W. J. Hollomon, A. M. Pate, W. P. Weaver, and W. W. Nance. The building was to cost not less than $15,000.00. The cornerstone was laid on May 7, 1917, and the first service in the new building was held on September 9, 1917. It was dedicated on the First Sunday in May, 1926, by Bishop John M. Moore and under the pastoral direction of the Reverend Seba Kirkpatrick.

Some changes in the church organization have been made as people were led toward a hoped-for unity. These changes brought about some changes in name. Before 1939 the official name was the Methodist Episcopal Church South. In 1939 the Methodist Episcopal Church South united with the Methodist Protestant Church and became known as the Methodist Church. In 1968, the Methodist Church united with the Evangelical United Brethren and became known as the United Methodist Church.

Through the years, church membership grew and the scope of the service of the church widened. More room was needed and plans were made to build a fourth building. Because parking space had become a problem, it was thought wise to move to a new location to erect the fourth church building. The large lot, where the De Leon High School once sat, was bought from the De Leon School District. There, the present church building, constructed in 1964, stands on a hill where it commands a view of the town of De Leon. The beautiful landscaped grounds bordered on the street side by a row of stately trees is an outstanding attraction on Texas Avenue. Its position and its surroundings truly invite all them all to enter and worship.

The building was designed and built by Paden Construction Company of Cleburne and is brick veneer construction in modern design. The sanctuary, with its high vaulted ceiling and exposed laminated beams, has a seating capacity of 268 with "overflow" space for eighty to ninety more. Woodwork is of a light natural finish with the pews of matching finish. The beautiful windows are a design of modern art with blue the predominating color. Several other colors are intermingled and make a beautiful picture when the light shines through. The pews are upholstered in red and the carpeting is red. Indirect lighting accents the beautiful coloring of the interior.

There are fourteen classrooms, a youth center, a study, large fellowship hall, and well-planned kitchen facilities. The entire area of 12,000 square feet is centrally heated and air conditioned.

One of the outstanding features, other than the sancturay, is centered around the two large stained glass windows moved from the old church. This room is a classroom; but, because of its unusual beauty and size, has been furnished as a parlor for any small church gathering. Here, also, is the church library and here, too, the brides make their final preparations for their weddings in the sanctuary below.

The beautiful edifice, total cost of which was $100,000.00, was made possible under the pastoral leadership of the Reverend John Basham. John, as he was known to most of his members, is a man who does not know the meaning of the statement, "It can't be done." He was lavish with his praise and because his members felt so unworthy of this, they seemed to work all the harder to be worthy of that praise. He had, to work with him, a hard working building committee composed of Truman Renshaw, Chairman, Marvin Holdridge, I. C. Donegan, P. B. Rann, Mrs. Lucile Wilkerson, Mrs. Dale Smith, Coy Otwell, and Jim H. Wilkerson.

Church buildings do not make churches. Churches are made up of people dedicated to serving God and their fellowmen. A true history of any church must include people.

PASTORS

A church quite naturally looks to its pastors for leadership. Great leadership has been provided the De Leon Methodist Church since its founding. The following pastors have served the De Leon Church since it was founded: The Reverends James Collard, Wyatt, John T. Owens, William Wittenburh, George F. Fair, John W. Womach, I. N. Reeves, O. M. Addison, W. K. Simpson, A. P. Smith, S. J. Franks, C. V. Oswaldt, J. E. Walker, Samuel Gay, N. M. McLaughlin, Jerome Harolson, W. M. Lane, M. H. Rogers, C. S. Cameron, C. A. Evans, C. A. Bickley, W. C. Helburn, W. H. Doss, W. B. Vaughn, J. W. Cowan, Seba Kirkpatrick, W. W. Richeson, Samuel J. Rucker, C. C. Henson, R. G. Percival, A. W. Waddell, F. L. Wilshire, John A. Siceloff, C. D. Wooten, A. K. Marney, A. W. Franklin, S. A. Baker, J. W. Sharbutt, Floyd Thrash, Paul Wiseman, Roy Johnson, John Basham, J. E. Morton, Bobby Weathers, and the present pastor. W. L. Milner.

Unless a church has inspired some of its youth to the great call to full time Christian service, the people feel they have failed to present the true meaning of dedicated Christian living attractively. The De Leon church has sent out a goodly number. Because this is one area in which a church must never rest on past accomplishments, this list should continue to grow through the years. Young men who have gone out from this church into full time Christian service are G. A. Greene, J. A. Burks, W. T. Gray, Leonard Ray, Jeff Ray, Louis Rucker, B. L. Nance, Joseph I. Patterson, Roy Greenwaldt, Paul Morgan, Paul Holdridge, Phil Gates, Earl Lightfoot, C. A. Greenwaldt, James Holdridge, Ben Marney, Edd Otwell, Weldon Stephenson, and William Greenwaldt. Young ladies who accepted the call to full time Christian service and went out from the De Leon church were Virginia Greenwaldt and Mildred Siceloff Carter.

DE LEON POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

The De Leon Post Office of Comanche County, Texas was established on August 29, 1881, with Frank E. Bonipart as Postmaster. The nearest adjoining county is Erath County and the distance to nearest point of the county line is seven miles by air or traveled road. The post offices nearest the De Leon office (one in each general direction) are:

SIDNEY POST OFFICE

John C. Stapp became the first postmaster of Sidney when the post office was established in 1886. An application for a post office for Round Mountain, as the community was called at that time, revealed there was already a post office located in a community (in Texas) by that name. Mr. Stapp then submitted the name Sidney, which was his own son's name. Thus the post office was "Sidney". Later the school and churches also took Sidney as their name.

Postmasters, with dates of appointment, include the following:

John C. Stapp	Jan. 6, 1886
Charles C. Beardon	Oct. 7, 1888

Other postmasters and postmistresses include J. A. Cox, Mrs. Horace (Alice Mae) Jones, Mrs. Carl (Opal) Walker, and Mrs. Norman (Bessie) Moore.

The post office has been housed in various buildings during the past ninety years, but today it is located in its own recently constructed brick building.

BANKING HISTORY

The national banking system was established in 1863, but only a few scattered banks had obtained charters from the federal government before the 1880's.

In Texas, the Constitution of 1845 prohibited the incorporation of banks by the state, so mercantile and commission merchants provided limited banking functions. Moneylenders in the villages were the forerunners of bankers. In 1859, there were more than three thousand moneylenders in Texas.

The evolution of the commercial banking system in Texas is a reflection of the frontier distrust of all financial organizations. The state constitutions of 1861 and 1866 inserted prohibitions of state chartered banks, then in 1874 a general banking law was passed only to be prohibited again in 1876. Finally, in 1905 a state banking system was established allowing the incorporation of state banks. Prior to that time, only thirteen national banks had been organized by 1880, but by 1885 the number had grown to sixty-eight. However, many citizens continued to use the mercantile house, a postal money order, and in some cases, would send a packet of money by railroad express to handle money matters.

A list of the officers and directors of early-day banks in Comanche County proves interesting.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Comanche was chartered September 17, 1886. Its officers and board were: H. R. Martin, President; T. C. Hill, Cashier; G. A. Beeman, L. B. Russell, J. L. Moore, James Carnes, Sr., W. O. Hamilton, C. B. Mason, Jim H. Hill, E. Greer, J. A. Solomon, M. M. Rosenthal, Chas. L. Bernheim, W. W. Seely and E. Rotan.

COMANCHE NATIONAL BANK was chartered December 19, 1887 and its original building constructed in 1890, still stands in the town of Comanche and has been preserved by the present owner, Joseph Maxwell. First officers and stockholders of Comanche National Bank were: J. B. Chilton, president; W. B. Cunningham, Cashier; T. J. Holmsley, J. R. Thomas, F. M. Browne R. W. Turner, J. W. Greene, J. D. Campbell, R. V. Neely, Jame Cunningham, Sr., E. Rotan, and M. B. Lloyd.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK of Comanche was chartered January 21, 1904, with W. H. Montgomery, President T. J. Williams, Vice President, E. E. Anthony, Cashier, N. E Palmer, Assistant Cashier; J. F. Tate, A. J. Gray, I. G. Wyatt M. B. Anderson, T. R. Holmsley, Directors.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK of De Leon was organized January 1, 1905 with the following officers and directors R. W. Higginbotham, President; Dr. T. P. Weaver, Vice President; C. R. Carruth, Vice President; W. S. Whaley, Cashier. R. R. Harvey, Assistant Cashier; C. W. Bartlett, J. D. Ham C. R. Strain, J. B. Wilson and W. W. Whaley, Directors.

Date of founding has not been determined but other banks were in operation at Gustine and De Leon in 1907. The Bank of Gustine advertised W. H. Eddleman, President; W. A. Waldrop, Vice President; George C. Jones, Cashier, and at De Leon the First National Bank also had as its president W. H. Eddleman, with W. C. Streety, Vice President; J. Doss Miller, Vice President; B. J. Pittman, Cashier; Dodd Price, Assistant Cashier. At Gustine, A. A. Kelly is known to have had the Farmers & Merchants Bank, and J. P. Pettit & Company operated a private bank.

THE FIRST STATE BANK of Comanche was founded December 10, 1910 by E. E. Anthony and J. E. Gray. Mr. Anthony had worked as a telegraph operator in Comanche, served as assistant postmaster, worked as a newspaper editor of the Comanche Chief, was an employee of the Comanche National Bank and the First National Bank and was an organizer of Farmers & Merchants Bank of Commerce before he organized the First State Bank.

By 1916, county banks were advertising the merits of the federal reserve system, and First National of Comance offered a free booklet entitled "How Does It Benefit Me?" explaining the federal reserve. Depositors were solicited to support the system to help business men and farmers, to provide plenty of currency at all times, and to effect a steadier supply of credit.

At present Comanche County has four banks, three of which have constructed new facilities including drive-in windows, plus every modern day banking service. First State Bank was successor to the Gustine Bank and business is being conducted in the stone building first erected in Gustine. Farmers & Merchants Bank of De Leon is still in operation but at a new location, as is Comanche National in Comanche. First Comanche Bank as successor to State National Bank has recently completed a twenty-four hour drive-in window as an addition to the bank.

In the ten years between 1960 and 1970 bank deposits in Comanche County rose 177%, which was the highest figure in the five county area of Central Texas.

In the Probate Book of Comanche County, Texas on page 175 shows the fees of the estate of J.D. Ham

John owned and operated the first lumberyard in De Leon, Comanche County, Texas. After one by one buying out his brothers and sisters land that they inherited from their father William A. Ham, he owned the Ham Homestead which is located about eight miles north east of the town of Comanche off of FM 2247 lying on the Sweetwater Creek. After his death the land went to his children James Ottis Ham and Willie Vei (Ham) Stockman and they later sold the land. John was also one of the Directors of the Farmers & Merchants Bank of De Leon. He was known as a sharp business man.

In July of 1915 John became the administrator of his mother (Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham) estate. Although she was still living, he claimed she had lost her mind and sent her to live with his brother and his family (George D. Ham) in Paducah, Cottle County, Texas where she died Jan. 1, 1916. Hattie was very social minded and did not want Margrett to live with them.

First United Methodist Church. When a town is born, a church is organized soon afterward. At least that is the usual sequence of events. De Leon United Methodist Church has the unique distinction of having been organized five years before there was a town of De Leon. In 1881 the Central Texas Railway Company laid a railroad through this area and established a depot at a convenient site. The railroad Company named the depot De Leon because it was near the Leon River. Records show that very soon after the railroad was built, the town of De Leon was laid out and the first lots sold. Five years prior to this, in 1876, a Methodist Church was organized by the Rev. E.A. Bailey, Presiding Elder of the Dublin District. This was the beginning of the De Leon Methodist Episcopal Church South. There were 13 charter members, 8 women & 5 men. These people planned to be permanent settlers.

(On Page 120) quoting from information left by J.D. Ham. "It (the church) was located on the North side of the branch, something near or below where Mrs. J.H. Buchan lives." Old settlers in De Leon locate this spot more specifically by placing it on McKinney Street in the approximate vicinity of 503 North McKinney. The second building was erected in 1882 on the corner of Austin & Labadie. This spot was used doe 82 years. Before 1939 the official name of this church was known as the Methodist Episcopal Church South. In 1939 Methodist Episcopal Church South united with the Methodist Protestant Church and became known as the Methodist Church. In 1968, the Methodist Church united with the Evangelical United Brethan and became known as the United Methodist Church. It is not known whether John Daniel Ham or his family were members of this church or not.

DE LEON CEMETERY

The main cemetery at De Leon is on West Reynosa Street near the edge of town. A decorative native stone wall across the older part of the Reynosa Street side was erected by the De Leon Garden Club in 1951. The entire site includes 17.55 acres.

The earliest marked grave is that of Cyrus Campbell who died 12 September 1883. A short sketch about him begins on page 11 of this volume. The last date on which inscriptions were copied or revised was 31 December 1976.

In general, alphabetical order within each section of the cemetery has been used. Since many of the lots are curbed, there is little explanation of the relationship of the individuals buried in each enclosure. The modern stones often include minimum information. We have copied the names of individuals seeming to be husband and wife and listed them together. There are probably some errors among these since many inscriptions are names and dates only. Even more probably, we have separated some names which belong together.

For the purposes of copying on this site, the term "only date" has been adopted. The cemetery is well sodded, mowed, filled in, and kept as flat as possible. The presence of unmarked old graves is almost impossible to ascertain. Of course, many dates suggest that the individual is still living. The number of funeral home type markers is small and most of these seem to disappear in very short order.

Through the kindness of Mayor Scottie Campbell, we were able to make a copy of the cemetery plat to keep with our material. We had hoped to publish the lot numbers but this proved far too complicated without actually surveying the land. We did record the numbers as well as we could in our own files. Should you plan to visit the cemetery, we can perhaps provide a general idea of a grave's location. Be sure to include a self addressed stamped envelope if you send a request.

DE LEON CEMETERY

The main cemetery at De Leon is on West Reynosa Street near the edge of town. A decorative native stone wall across the older part of the Reynosa Street side was erected by the De Leon Garden Club in 1951. The entire site includes 17.55 acres.

The earliest marked grave is that of Cyrus Campbell who died 12 September 1883. A short sketch about him begins on page 11 of this volume. The last date on which inscriptions were copied or revised was 31 December 1976.

In general, alphabetical order within each section of the cemetery has been used. Since many of the lots are curbed, there is little explanation of the relationship of the individuals buried in each enclosure. The modern stones often include minimum information. We have copied the names of individuals seeming to be husband and wife and listed them together. There are probably some errors among these since many inscriptions are names and dates only. Even more probably, we have separated some names which belong together.

For the purposes of copying on this site, the term "only date" has been adopted. The cemetery is well sodded, mowed, filled in, and kept as flat as possible. The presence of unmarked old graves is almost impossible to ascertain. Of course, many dates suggest that the individual is still living. The number of funeral home type markers is small and most of these seem to disappear in very short order.

Through the kindness of Mayor Scottie Campbell, we were able to make a copy of the cemetery plat to keep with our material. We had hoped to publish the lot numbers but this proved far too complicated without actually surveying the land. We did record the numbers as well as we could in our own files. Should you plan to visit the cemetery, we can perhaps provide a general idea of a grave's location. Be sure to include a self addressed stamped envelope if you send a request.

A LITTLE ABOUT CYRUS CAMPBELL

Our cover photograph shows the earliest marked grave in the main cemetery at De Leon. Cyrus Campbell, who has become increasingly fascinating, is buried beside his second wife, Minerva.

As his parents had been, Cyrus Campbell was born in North Carolina on the 11th of October 1810. He applied for land as one of Austin's colonists and came to Texas by way of Arkansas. He received a grant of one league (4428.4 acres) in modern Grimes County.

In 1835, Cyrus married Rebecca Robbins in what would soon become Austin County. Rebecca's parents, William and Mary Robbins, had come to Texas with Austin's Old Three Hundred. William Robbins received title on July 19, 1824, to 1 sito (4428.4 acres) in present day Brazoria County and 1 labor (177.12 acres) in Austin County where the family evidently settled. During 1835 and 1836, Cyrus lived at Columbia in Brazoria County.

A blacksmith by trade, Cyrus was evidently a busy one. Among the Audited Claims Papers in the Texas State Archives is a voucher for $5. he was due for work on a gun carriage done October 14, 1835. Another voucher dated November 25, 1835 authorized $20. the Provisional Government of Texas owed him for repairing the arms of the Mobile Grays. This unit of about 30 volunteers was organized in Alabama by James Butler Bonham, A. C. Horton, and S. P. St. John to come to the fight for Texas independence. After several encounters, all these men are presumed to have been among those lost in the Goliad Massacre on March 27, 1836.

In 1870 the Legislature approved an act providing pensions for veterans of the War for Texas Independence. Cyrus' application does not seem to have received final approval but it is a most interesting document.

In 1870 the Legislature approved an act providing pensions for veterans of the War for Texas Independence. Cyrus' application does not seem to have received final approval but it is a most interesting document.

He says that about the 16th of March, 1836, he received the general order of General Sam Houston for troops to rendezvous at Gonzales. Campbell says he went at once since he was registered in a company at Columbia commanded by Captain Wm. Patton. The men arrived in squads and Campbell notes he served with a company commanded by Captain Gibson Kuykendall.

During the retreat from Gonzales, measles broke out in camp and Cyrus became ill. By the time he recovered, the Battle of San Jacinto had ended the war and he never returned to the army or received his formal discharge. Cyrus' statement is sworn to by Rufus E. Campbell and John Campbell as witnesses. These men are listed among the soldiers ordered by Houston to remain at Harrisburg as a rear guard while the rest of the Texas army went on to San Jacinto. Rufus E. and John subsequently received land grants in recognition of their military service.

Also among the Audited Claims Papers are other bits of evidence of Cyrus' activities during the early days in Texas. Most well known locally is the fact that Campbell made a set of leg irons used on the imprisoned General Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna who had led the Mexican army. W. H. Patton, Chief of the Prison Guard at Columbia, received these on July 23, 1836. On his voucher for the $5. charge, Patton comments that "the price is about right if not very moderate".

By joint resolution on October 6, 1841, the Republic of Texas Legislature approved payment, in promissory notes, of Campbell's claim for $64.12 for his work on the schooner of war Liberty. This vessel was one of the four original ships purchased for the Texas Navy.

After the war, Cyrus settled in Austin County where he farmed for many years. He is listed in the 1840 tax roll as having completed the patent on 100 acres of land. He was also guardian for his youthful brother-in-law, John Reid Robbins, who had 911 acres. Rebecca's mother held 2422 acres as administratrix of the estate of William Robbins who had died in October of 1836.

Rebecca died and only two of her children were living in 1911. Cyrus M. was in Temple by then and William T. lived at Childress. On October 3, 1846, Cyrus married Minverva T. Clemmons in Washington County.

In 1870, the census taker lists Cyrus and Minerva living in Austin County. Cyrus says they lived "near Travis". At home were their children: James I. who was 19, Lewis W., 16, and Alice who was 10. Also their daughter Ann F. was living at home with her husband James E. Stevens and their three month old son. By 1880, the situation had changed slightly. The only child remaining at home was Alice who was there with her new husband, James M. Presler. The James E. Stevens family was living nearby and included three children by 1880.

Soon afterward, there seems to have been considerable change in the family's activities. Cyrus M. who had lived in Austin and Washington Counties, sold his interest in a successful store at Brenham and moved to Belton where he put in a lumber yard about 1883. He subsequently moved to Temple as his lumber yard chain grew.

James I. Campbell, then of McLennan County, bought property in De Leon on September 10, 1882. James E. Stevens, also of McLennan County, bought a city block in De Leon on January 31, 1883. In March he sold half of this to Cyrus Campbell and this deed is acknowledged at Comanche on May 30, 1883.

Evidently Cyrus did not live long in De Leon but he is remembered fondly as a minister in the Methodist Church there. A stained glass memorial window for him was placed in the church building constructed by the Methodists in 1895. Cyrus died in De Leon September 12, 1883. On September 30th, less than three weeks later, Minerva died there also.

The Campbells' daughter Alice and her husband James M. Presler, lived in De Leon for a time during the mid-1880's. They later moved to Comanche where Presler was a law partner of S.J. Thomas and later of T.L. Hutchison. Presler was educated at Soule University at Chappel Hill and at Texas A. & M., and he studied law after his marriage to Alice. His career as a jurist was a long and distinguished one and he represented the district including Comanche County as state senator for three terms in the Legislature. He left Comanche to become Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals in the Second District and in the Seventh District which was created later.
